Powell River, BC – The City of Powell River will be reopening the weight room at the Recreation Complex on Monday, July 6 with new protocols in place due to COVID-19.

“We’re excited that we can begin to offer limited recreation services to our community,” said Recreation Manager, Neil Pukesh. “While it’s not a full reopening and some modifications to the layout have occurred, the safety of our staff and the public are paramount, so a variety of new rules have been applied.”

To ensure public safety, access to the weight room will now be offered on a reservation basis only to a maximum of 15 patrons at any given time. Several different time slots have been created to reserve online or by phone on a first come, first served basis. Drop-in admission will not be allowed.

Weight room registration opens on Monday, June 29 at 8:30 am and time slots can be reserved up to two weeks in advance, with a maximum of one slot per person, per day.
